

Property Management Annual Eligibility Certification (AEC) Checklist

Updated September 2025

1. Annual Eligibility Certification (AEC)

Applies to:

- Properties that are 100% Affordable (check your RIS for recertification requirements)

- ☐ Have the household complete the Annual Eligibility Certification (AEC)
- ☐ This is a self-certification — do not verify or collect income or asset documentation
- ☐ Ensure all adult household members sign and date the AEC
- ☐ Review the RIS (Rental Information Sheet) for your property's recertification schedule and specific requirements

2. Certification of Student Eligibility

- ☐ Have the household complete the Certification of Student Eligibility form for each household
- ☐ Confirm all household members' student status (full-time, part-time, or non-student)
- ☐ Maintain supporting documentation if a member is a full-time student (per TDHCA guidance)
- ☐ For HOME units, confirm student status does not conflict with program eligibility

3. Special Needs Certification

- ☐ Have the household complete the Special Needs Certification form
- ☐ Ensure the certification aligns with your property's allocation (RIS or LURA)

4. HOME Program – Self-Certification Requirements

- ☐ Have the household complete the HOME Self-Certification (TIC) form
- ☐ Have the household self-certify income and household composition
- ☐ Complete the HOME Student Form, if applicable, based on household composition or member age
- ☐ If the HOME unit is layered with Tax Credit, all AEC requirements also apply
- ☐ Ensure all forms are signed and dated within program timelines

5. File Upload & Compliance Review

- ☐ Once all required forms (AEC, Student, Special Needs, and HOME forms if applicable) are complete, upload the entire certification packet to the designated Teams folder for Compliance review

BONNER CARRINGTON™

- ☐ If the household has executed a lease, include the executed lease in the Recertification Upload packet
- ☐ Verify all forms are signed, dated, and labeled correctly prior to submission
- ☐ Confirm the next recertification due date in the RIS

Quick Reference

Property Type	Required Forms	Notes
100% Affordable	AEC, Student Eligibility, Special Needs	No income or asset verification required
HOME	HOME Self-Certification, HOME Student Form	Verify per RIS; full recert due every 6th year
Layered HOME/Tax Credit	AEC + HOME Self-Certification	Both program requirements apply

Compliance Upload Reminder

Once all AEC documentation is complete, upload to Teams → Post, and upload into the Recertification Folder. Include the executed lease if the household has signed one. Ensure all files are labeled as:

- [Community Name] [Unit #] [Household Last Name] Recert May 2025
